Kentlake Boy's Soccer Camp

July 26th-28th
Ages 8-18

"Hard work beats talent when talent fails to work hard"

Camp under direction of Kyle Jones

Kentlake Soccer

What: Kentlake Boy's Summer Soccer Camp.

When: July 26th-28th 9am-3pm

Where: Kentlake High School on the turf field.

What to bring: Turf shoes, water, shin guards, lunch, and a competitive/winning attitude.

What you'll get: Each player will get a t-shirt and soccer ball with their registration along with quality instruction from both coaches and collegiate players.

The Goal:

With the game of soccer growing so much through out the United States it is more important now then ever to develop the skills of our youth.

In this camp the first goal is always to compete with class and have fun!

The focus will be both technical training and tactical training combined, always ending in large scale games to get the opportunity to use newly developed skills as you play.

Camp Director:

Kyle Jones– Kyle is very passionate about the games of soccer while believing that building character is the ultimate success of a coach.

He has been the boy's coach for the last 3 years and was the girl's coach for the last 2.
